GLENDALÉ OFFERS TIPS TO HELP RESIDENTS RESPOND TO ABANDONED OR FORECLOSED PROPERTY

GLENDALÉ, Ariz. – Are you concerned about an abandoned home in your neighborhood or HOA? If so, you should check out Glendale's new information resource on the Internet at:

www.glendaleaz.com/CommunityPartnerships/foreclosureinformation.cfm.

The city's new Web page provides guidance to residents who may be concerned about a vacant home, code violations or graffiti. City programs and departments are listed that can address these issues, along with contact phone numbers. The site also provides links to online forms for reporting graffiti or code violations.

For those who may be facing foreclosure, the site lists free local counseling as well as social services for help during difficult financial times.

For additional questions, residents should call the Code Compliance Department at 623-930-3610 or the Neighborhood Partnership Office at 623-930-2868.
